

28-09-2024 NSS CAMP INAUGURATION

29-09-2024 BEACH CLEANING

30-09-2024 TREE PLANTATION

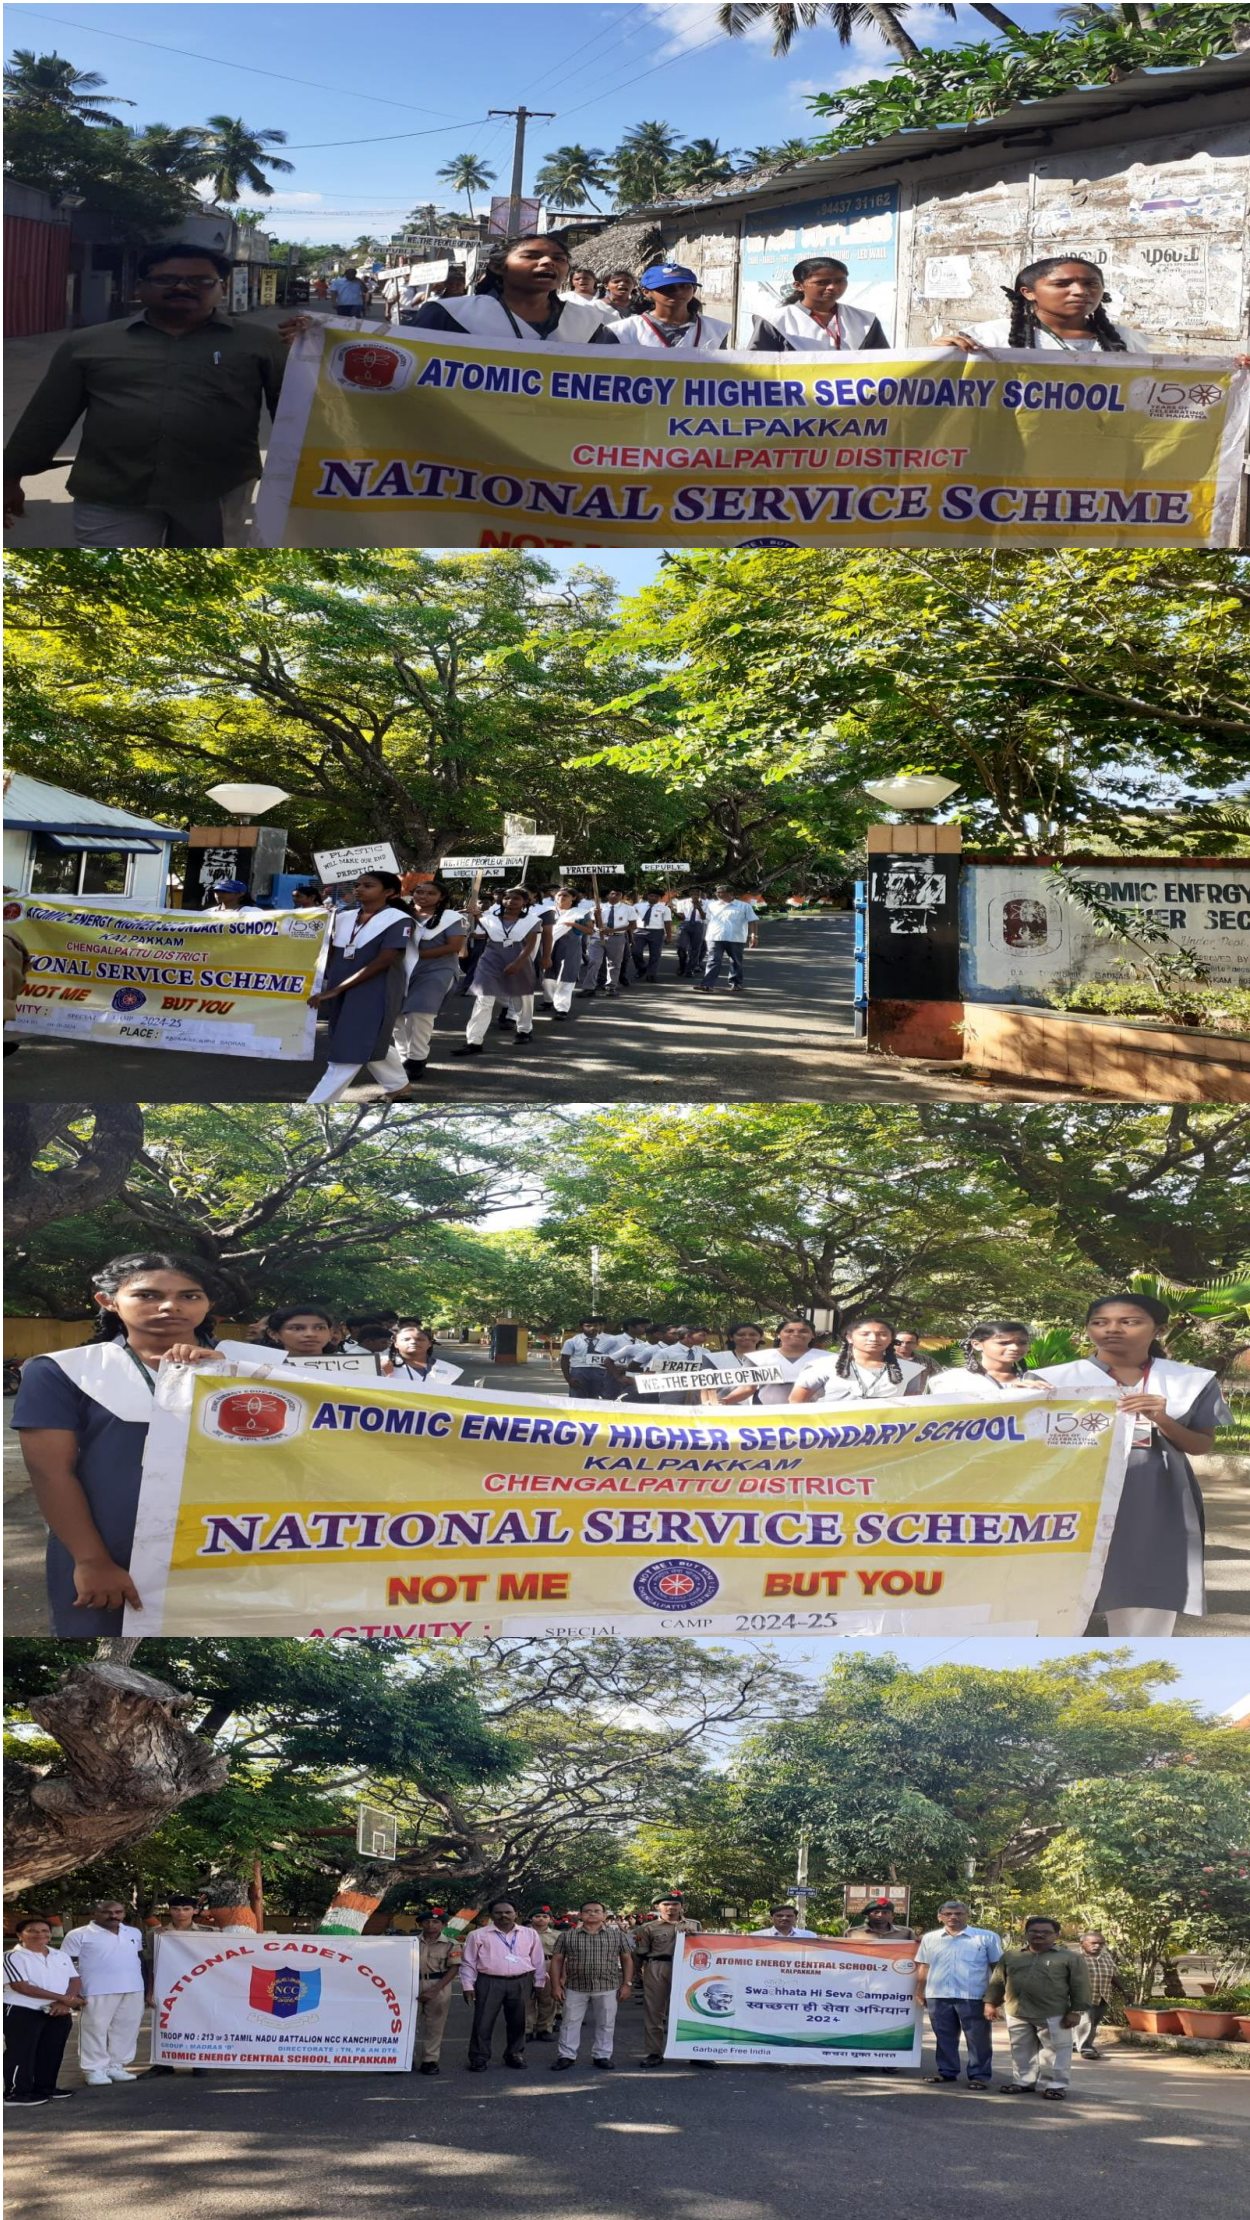

01-10-2024 TEMPLE CLEANING

02-10-2024 GANDHI JAYANTHI CELEBRATIONS

03-10-2024 CLEANLINESS RALLY

04-10-2024 CAMP VALEDICTORY

ATOMIC ENERGY HR. SEC. SCHOOL, KALPAKKAM

NSS Camp report 2024-25

The NSS (National Service Scheme) camp was organized from 28-09-2024 to 04-10-2024 at Sadras. A wide range of activities were conducted during the camp aimed at promoting cleanliness, environmental conservation, and social responsibility. The events conducted included an inaugural function, various cleaning and plantation programs, a rally, a PowerPoint presentation on cleanliness, and the celebration of Gandhi Jayanthi. Below is a detailed report of the key events.

Inaugural Function

The camp began with an inaugural function attended by the school principal, faculty members, and NSS volunteers. The principal, Mr. Kasinath Behra, delivered an inspiring speech emphasizing the importance of community service and active participation in cleanliness drives. The principal's message set the tone for the camp's activities, motivating all participants to contribute to the betterment of society.

Beach Cleaning Programme

As part of the camp's activities, a beach cleaning program was organized at . NSS volunteers worked tirelessly to collect litter, plastic waste, and other non-biodegradable materials. The program not only cleaned the beach but also raised awareness among the public about the need for responsible waste disposal to preserve the environment.

Tree Plantation Programme

A tree plantation drive was conducted as part of the environmental conservation initiative. Volunteers planted saplings in and around the community, aiming to increase green cover and promote ecological balance. The plantation program was well-received by the locals, who appreciated the effort to contribute towards a greener future.

Temple Cleaning

Another significant activity undertaken during the camp was the cleaning of the Siva Temple in Sadras. Volunteers cleaned the premises and surrounding areas, making it a cleaner and more pleasant place for the local community. The temple cleaning program also highlighted the importance of maintaining cleanliness in places of worship and public spaces.

Rally About Cleanliness

To spread awareness about the importance of cleanliness, the NSS team organized a rally in the streets of Sadras. Volunteers carried banners and raised slogans on maintaining hygiene, avoiding littering, and the proper management of waste. The rally attracted the attention of many local residents, inspiring them to keep their surroundings clean.

Gandhi Jayanthi Day Celebration

The camp coincided with the celebration of Gandhi Jayanthi on October 2nd. A special event was held to pay homage to Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation, who championed cleanliness as part of his vision for a self-reliant India. Volunteers participated in discussions, skits, and other activities to promote the principles of non-violence and cleanliness advocated by Gandhi.

PowerPoint Presentation on Cleanliness

A special presentation on cleanliness was delivered by the Health Inspector of Thirukalukundram, Mr. Vasantha Kumar. The PowerPoint presentation covered various aspects of personal and community hygiene, waste management, and the importance of preventing diseases through cleanliness. This session was highly informative and well-received by the volunteers and locals alike.

Valedictory Function

The camp concluded with a valedictory function, attended by local people from Sadras. During the function, the contributions of the NSS volunteers were appreciated, and the locals expressed their gratitude for the work done during the camp. The event ended on a high note with the participation and commitment to continue such community service in the future.

Conclusion

The NSS camp was a resounding success, achieving its objective of promoting cleanliness, environmental conservation, and social responsibility. The active participation of volunteers and the cooperation of the local community played a key role in making the camp a memorable and impactful experience for all.